

2015 Bronze Quill Winners

Scott Shepherd, vice president, ONE Gas transformation project, was named the 2015 Communicator of the year for his leadership in implementing a business transformation project at ONE Gas and his commitment to communicating effectively about change management.

Angela Byers, founder and principal of Byers Creative, received the John Hartman Professional of the Year award. Byers, who currently serves as president of IABC/Tulsa, was recognized by her peers as an outstanding leader, communications professional and community supporter.

The Leon Bolen Service Award, which honors an IABC member's volunteerism and support of IABC's organizational goals, was awarded to Cody Bromley of Enovation Controls, and Sara Pollard of Walmart.

The "Best of Show" Award, presented to the 2015 entry with the highest total score, was awarded to Michael McCulloh of ONE Gas.
